

Lesson #12
January 14, 2015
Objective: Pick Up Your Mess

Name:

Advisory Teacher:

1. If this is your table after you and your friends at lunch finish eating, whose job is it to pick this up?
2. Name the people who it is not their job to pick up this mess.
3. Brainstorm. What might make a person think that they do not have to pick up their own messes?
4. If everyone thought they did not have to pick up after themselves, what would this school, town, world look like?
5. What can you do (besides picking up your own messes) to make our world a more beautiful world?