IV. Public Comments and CUTEA Comments

CUTEA Teacher Spotlight - Mr. Tucker was here to talk about the Lincoln Singers a brand new, volunteer-based program. There are 80 students 4th and 5th grade students that meet once a week on Thursday mornings before school. They have two concerts lined up in December (one being televised they are very excited about!) and will be performing the national anthem at several different sporting events throughout the year.

Public comments: Tanner Keeler and Hilary Maxwell would like to request another coach stipend for wrestling. To give each set of students (Boys Varsity, Girls Varsity, and JV) the attention they all need to succeed in wrestling, they need another coach to go with all the different groups.

V. New Business

Apple: Soccer field has a new scoreboard just working on getting electricity to it. Also, a netted backstop was put up to keep balls in the playing area.

WES: The 2nd graders took a field trip to Neil Pit out at Marathon. The WES PTO sponsored a dinosaur assembly that went over really well with the students and staff.

Tucker: High Five Friday started last week. The football team was at each of the buildings to greet the students before school started. Different groups will be there each week to greet the students.
